TRACEcertification is not a guarantee against past or potential wrongdoing by the certified entity or a guarantee against potential liability. A summary of any red flags identified during the TRACEcertification review is included in the report, but not all red flags preclude TRACEcertification. Companies doing business with this TRACE Certified entity should always request a full copy of the underlying report. To view a complete list of TRACE Certified entities, please visit the TRACE Intermediary Directory at <https://tpms.TRACEinternational.org/IntermediaryDirectory>.

We have successfully completed our TRACE certification review.

TRACE certification Renewal is valid from 15 November 2019 - 14 November 2020.

TRACE certification ID: TC4094-3923.

Please note that TRACE is no longer providing certificates upon completion of the renewal review.

What Does it Mean to be TRACE Certified

It means that an individual or company has completed a comprehensive due diligence process administered by TRACE, the world's leading anti-bribery standard setting organization. Certification by TRACE signifies that an entity has completed internationally accepted due diligence procedures and has been forthcoming and cooperative during the review process. The successful completion of TRACE certification demonstrates a commitment to commercial transparency, allowing the certified entity to serve as a valued business partner to multinational companies.
